

THE PLANETS

Personal Planets

Sun: Governs how we see ourselves, and how we want to be seen; where we shine; our ego; our persona

Moon: Our emotional reactions, how we want to be nurtured and where we were not adequately nurtured; our body on an emotional level

Mercury: How we communicate, how we share information, how we learn, how we think and take in information

Venus: How we attract others and how we are attracted, our values, our sensual sides, including our tastes for food, luxury, and pleasure

Mars: How we assert ourselves, whether sexually, verbally, or otherwise; how we fight, how we get angry, how we fornicate (not make love)

Social Planets:

Jupiter: Areas of expansiveness, how we grow, how we get carried away, how we're generous, how we're big-hearted, how we're high-minded, where we are lucky

Saturn: Where we get down to business, where we feel a sense of scarcity or lack, pain points, areas in our life that will take time to mature, where we value stability

Generational Planets

Uranus: Where we're unconventional or rebellious, where we need our independence, how we express our independence, area in our life where we demonstrate instability

Pluto: Our trauma, where we need transformation and transmutation, how we're scarred, where we go deep (or where we need to go deep in order to transmute)

Other important points:

Ascendant: How others see us, how we present when we walk into a room, how we look physically, how we show up in the world

North/South Node: Where we've been and where we're going; what we came into the world with, and what we need to learn before we leave

Midheaven: How we view success, our "purpose", our best self
